

ARTHUR SINGER SPEAKER SERIES

1 2 3

DAVID J. WAGNER, PHD

Curator, art historian and author of American Wildlife Art

THURSDAY

SEPTEMBER 21 | 5:30 P.M.

UNIVERSITY GALLERY

THE HISTORY OF WILDLIFE ART IN AMERICA

David J. Wagner, Ph.D. is President and Chief Curator/Tour Director of a limited liability corporation located in the state of Wisconsin, established for the principle purpose of producing and managing museum exhibitions and traveling exhibits throughout North America. David J. Wagner, L.L.C. has produced ongoing tours of the Society of Animal Artists flagship exhibition, ART AND THE ANIMAL; BLOSSOM ~ ART OF FLOWERS in partnership with The Susan K. Black Foundation; and THE HORSE IN FINE ART, in collaboration with the American Academy of Equine Art. For five consecutive years, he curated the annual reinstallation of the Outdoor Sculpture Courtyard at National Geographic Society Headquarters in Washington, D.C. David J. Wagner, L.L.C. also produced the Masterworks tour from The International Guild of Realism.

ARTHUR SINGER

The Wildlife Art of an American Master

University Gallery

Rochester Institute of Technology

August 7 - October 28, 2017

Monday - Friday | 10:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Saturday | 12:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

www.rit.edu/fa/gallery

R·I·T | UNIVERSITY GALLERY